

Memorandum from the Graduate College

Curriculum Committee

Minutes

December 8th, 2005

Present: Gale Sinatra, Kim Charron, Brad Wimmer, Stacey Hardy-Desmond, David Hassenzahl, Robert Schill, Giselle Touzard, Curtis Love, Nancy Sileo. Voting by e-mail: Woosoon Yim, Mack Rubley, Shannon Sumpter, John Swetnam.

COURSE CHANGES APPROVED

Accounting

ACC 601, Financial Reporting I

Change prerequisites to: ACC 600 and FIN301 or equivalent. (To be enforced by the registrar.)

ACC 602, Financial Reporting II

Change prerequisites to: ACC 401 or ACC 601 or equivalent. (To be enforced by the registrar.)

ACC 606, Auditing in the Gaming Industry

Change prerequisites to: ACC 600 or equivalent. (To be enforced by the registrar.)

ACC 609, Accounting Information Systems

Change prerequisites to: ACC 600 or equivalent. (To be enforced by the registrar.)

ACC 610, Federal Taxation

Change prerequisites to: ACC 202 or ACC700 or equivalent. (To be enforced by the registrar.)

ACC 620, Internal Auditing

Change prerequisites to: ACC 401 or ACC 601 or equivalent. (To be enforced by the registrar.)

ACC 650, International Accounting

Change prerequisites to: ACC 202 or equivalent. (To be enforced by the registrar.)

ACC 670, Auditing

Change prerequisites to: ACC 401 or ACC 601 and ACC409 or ACC609 or equivalent. (To be enforced by the registrar.)

Educational Psychology

EPP 760, Contemporary Issues in Educational Psychology

Change title to: Psychoeducational Issues of Diverse Learners

Change description to: This course is designed to provide skills needed to work with diverse learners in a psychoeducational setting. Specifically, the learner will be expected to understand multicultural issues concerning assessment, counseling, second-language acquisition, and/or general cultural diversity.

EPP 763, Development and Implementation of Interventions in School Psychology

Change title to: Psychoeducational Academic and Diagnostic Assessment

Change description to: The course is designed to teach students how to effectively perform psychological, academic, and diagnostic testing as part of a general psychoeducational evaluation. Students will also be given skills in diagnosing educational and psychological disorders.

School of Dental Medicine

DEN 7254, Health Care Administration: Regulation & Finance

Delete Course

DEN 7453, Practice Administration IV

Change title to: Dental Jurisprudence

Change description to: Review of current legal and regulatory issues that impact the contemporary practice of dentistry. Topics include state and federal regulations, licensure, professional liability, personnel issues, etc.

School of Law

LAW 729, Advanced Legal Research

Change credit to: Variable 1-3

Nursing

NURS 731, Advanced Pediatric Health Assessment

Change description to: Focuses on advanced concepts in the physical, social, cognitive and developmental assessment of infants, children, and adolescents.

Physical assessment specific to each age group will be studied. Students will also explore several selected developmental screening tools.

Change credit to: Fixed 3

NURS 744, Primary Care Pediatrics: Common Problems

Change description to: Research-based assessment, diagnosis, management and evaluation of common acute health problems affecting children from infancy through adolescence. Fifteen hours per week of precepted practicum.

Change credit to: Fixed 7

NURS 745, Nutrition in Primary Pediatric Care
Delete Course

NURS 753, Adolescent Health in Primary Care
Delete Course

NURS 754, Primary care in Pediatrics: Development and Behavioral Problems
Delete Course

NEW COURSES APPROVED

School of Dental Medicine

DEN 7425, DSIV Advanced General Dentistry Seminar: Board Review
ORTH 8104, Clinical Seminars
ORTH 8204, Clinical Orthodontics
ORTH 8314, Advanced Research
ORTH 8414, Advanced Biomedical Sciences
ORTH 8514, Advanced Clinical Sciences
ORTH 8604, Diagnosis, Treatment Planning and Case Presentation
ORTH 8714, Advanced Profession Studies
ORTH 8804, Literature Review/Journal Club

Computer Science

CS 648, American Cultural and Intellectual History I

Nursing

NURS 734, Primary Care in Pediatrics: the Well Child and Adolescent

Sociology

SOC 752, Global Migrations
SOC 753, Seminar on Racial Justice and Latina/os
SOC 754, Seminar in Population and Equity

Women's Studies

WMST 601, Feminist Theories
WMST 618, Language and Gender
WMST 799, Grad Independent Study

Educational Psychology

EPC 750, Advanced Seminars in School Counseling